

Sweets

Tastes and traditions from many cultures

Exhibition

Different cultures use sweets for many reasons and purposes – to mark important rituals, celebrations and life events. Discover special sweet foods, the way in which they are made and the significance they hold, from the Indian, Italian, Japanese, Mauritian and Turkish communities in Victoria.

Opens Thursday 15 March
Included with museum entry

EVENTS

Sweet Dinner by Guy Grossi

Tantalise your taste buds with a five course dinner with wine matched created by Guy Grossi. Indulge in a degustation feast incorporating sweet elements from five different cultures: Indian, Italian, Japanese, Mauritian and Turkish.

Thursday 15 March
6:30–10:30pm
Adults $180 MV Members $170
Bookings 13 11 02

Sweet Dinner proudly supported by: Grossi, White Card Food and Events, Chrismont Wines, Red Claw Wines and Complete Function Hire

Sweets Festival

Celebrate our shared sweet tooth at this delectable one-day festival of food and culture. Enjoy a feast of toothsome food stalls, performances and demonstrations. Developed with the Indian, Italian, Japanese, Mauritian and Turkish communities in Victoria.

Sunday 18 March
11am–4pm
Included with museum entry

Immigration Museum
400 Flinders Street Melbourne
Adults $10 Children and Concessions Free
Open Daily 10am–5pm
13 11 02 museumvictoria.com.au

Sweets

Tastes and traditions from many cultures

Opens 15 March 2012

Source: Museum Victoria / Photographer D. Kelly